

News Release

Attention: Healthcare and Commercial Real Estate Editors

Laura Macdonald
Director, Marketing and Communication
PRISM Partners Inc.
+ 1 416 315-4177
lmacdonald@prismpartners.com

PRISM Partners Inc. Appoints New Director of Real Estate Advisory and Consulting Services

Toronto, June 23, 2009 - PRISM Partners Inc. (PRISM) is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Myron Boltman to Director, Real Estate Advisory and Consulting Services.

Mr. Boltman will advance PRISM's new service line in Real Estate Consulting and Advisory Services by providing strategic consulting and guidance to clients in the healthcare, municipal, academic, research and commercial office sectors. His expertise includes marketing and leasing of large scale research and commercial office buildings, joint venture advice and negotiations, opinion of value, real estate asset disposition strategies, lease negotiations, due diligence, expert testimony and arbitration. Prior to joining PRISM, Mr. Boltman served in senior executive positions with private and public sector real estate development companies supporting major projects including the Consilium, MaRS Discovery District, Royal Bank Service Centre, IBM Canada and the Federal Court building.

Photos available upon request.

-30-

About PRISM Partners Inc.

PRISM offers an outstanding depth and breadth of knowledge in leading the planning, design and construction of social infrastructure projects from concept to completion. Unique in its ability to leverage strategy, PRISM offers bold new approaches that meet challenges head on — earning the confidence of clients.

With roots in healthcare and research, and also serving the academic and municipal sectors, PRISM transforms possibility into reality by championing ideas to deliver the right expertise at the right time. PRISM's three primary service divisions, Planning & Programming, Specialty Services, and Design & Construction, offer a full suite of services including strategic planning, business case development, functional programming, project management services, procurement strategies, operational commissioning, cost control, financial services, real estate consulting, and transactional advisory services. For more information on all of PRISM's services contact us at: 416 619-3535, or visit www.prismpartners.com.